There are extensive snow making facilities on Big D, The Summit and new for 2008 on the Heavenly Valley runs.

There is also a helicopter service to Fall's Creek which runs in favourable weather.

The mountain and surrounding areas are criss crossed with extensive cross country ski trails that go as far as Dinner Plain and Fall's Creek.

A free bus service provides transport from one end of the village to the other and also down to the overnight car parks.

There is a choice of ski hire outlets and there are numerous restaurants and bars, often with live music.
